

Instruction: Demonstrate the usage of pointers for the following problems

1. WAP to swap two numbers.
2. WAP to store n number in array and determine the highest using function where the array is passed in a function. Also access elements using pointer.
3. WAP to compute the GCD of two numbers without using function.